

Decision matrix

What form do you need to complete and who should you submit it to?

That is either your local council or MPI

Does your food business operate from one or several sites?	Does your food business operate in one or several areas?	Which risk based measure applies to your food business?	You will need to apply with either your local council or MPI — see below.	You will need to apply with either your local council or MPI (as indicated below) and complete the following application form.
Single Site	One	National Programme 1 National Programme 2 National Programme 3 or Template FCP	Your local council	Application form to be provided by local council
Multiple Site	One	National Programme 1 National Programme 2 National Programme 3 or Template FCP	Your local council	Application form to be provided by local council
Multiple Site	Several	National Programme 1 National Programme 2 National Programme 3	You can either:  1. register each premises with the respective local council or 2. register all premises under one application with MPI	If registering with council, application form to be provided by local council  If registering with MPI, use Application Form - FA10MSNP New multi-site food business subject to National Programme under Food Act 2014
Multiple Site	Several	Food Control Template	You can either:  1. register each premises with the respective local council or 2. register all premises under one application with MPI	If registering with council, application form to be provided by local council  If registering with MPI, use Application Form – FA10MST  New Multi-Site Template Food Control Plan under Food Act 2014
Single & Multi Site	One & several	Custom Food Control Plan	MPI	Application Form - FA10C  New Custom Food Control Plan under Food Act 2014

Apply with local council

Apply with local council or MPI

Apply with MPI