Weights and Measures Act 1987

Food Act 2014

The purpose of this Act is to—

- (a) restate and reform the law relating to how persons trade in food; and
- (b) achieve the safety and suitability of food for sale; and
- (c) maintain confidence in New Zealand's food safety regime; and
- (d) provide for risk-based measures that—
 - (i) minimise and manage risks to public health; and
 - (ii) protect and promote public health; and
- (e) provide certainty for food businesses in relation to how the requirements of this Act will affect their activities; and
- (f) require persons who trade in food to take responsibility for the safety and suitability of that food.

Animal Products Act 1999

The objective of the Act is to –

- (a) Minimise and manage risks to human or animal health arising from the production and processing of animal material and products by instituting measures that ensure so far as practicable that all traded animal products are fit for intended purpose; and
- (b) facilitate the entry of animal material and products into overseas markets by providing the controls and mechanisms needed to give and to safeguard official assurances for entry into those markets

Agricultural Compounds and Veterinary Medicines \(ACVM\) Act 1997

The purpose of this Act is to—

- (a) prevent or manage risks associated with the use of agricultural compounds, being—
 - (i) risks to public health; and
 - (ii) risks to trade in primary produce; and
 - (iii) risks to animal welfare; and
 - (iv) risks to agricultural security.
- (b) ensure that the use of agricultural compounds does not result in breaches of domestic food residue standards; and
- (c) ensure the provision of sufficient consumer information about agricultural compounds.

Biosecurity Act 1993

Law relating to the exclusion, eradication, and effective management of pests and unwanted organisms, including those already established here.

Animal Welfare Act 1999

Establishes fundamental obligations relating to the care of animals. These obligations are written in general terms with detail found in codes of welfare. Codes contain minimum standards which have a legal effect under the Act for the care and management of animals.
