

Cheesemonger

Buys cheese to mature and sell in
New Zealand and Australia

Which regime will you be operating under?

The Food Act

Who do you register with?

You will register with your local council if your business is within one council region.

If you have multiple sites across multiple council regions you will register with Ministry for Primary Industries (MPI). You will need to register as an exporter with MPI if you are sending product to Australia.

Which registration forms/s do you need to complete?

The template food control plan application form from your local council or

FA10MST- Multi-site Template Food Control Plan

AP1- Animal Product Exporter Registration

(if sending product to Australia)

How much will you pay to register?

Either the local council template food control plan fee which varies or the MPI registration cost of $220- $470 if you are multi-site business across local council boundaries and exporting to Australia.

How frequently will you be verified and will you require any other assessments?

Up to an 18-month verification