

Cheesemaker

Buys milk and makes cheese for sale in
New Zealand and Australia

Which regime will you be operating under?

The Food Act

Who do you register with?

You will register with your local council if your business is within one council region.

If you have multiple sites across multiple council regions you will register with Ministry for Primary Industries.

Which registration forms/s do you need to complete?

The template food control plan application form from your local council, or

FA10MST- Multi-site Template Food Control Plan

How much will you pay to register?

Either the local council template food control plan fee which varies or the MPI registration cost of $222.81 if you are multi-site across local council boundaries

How frequently will you be verified and will you require any other assessments?

Up to an 18-month verification