

Fisheries New Zealand

Tini a Tangaroa

Fisheries New Zealand/NIWA Masters Scholarships in Quantitative Fisheries Science for the 2021 academic year

Application Form – Part I

To be submitted by 16th October 2020

Masters

☐

1. Surname or Family Name

Given Names

2. Date of Birth

Gender

Male

☐

Female

☐

Nationality

3. Address

.....
.....
.....
.....

4. Telephone

Home

Work

Cell phone

5. Email

6. Tertiary Education

Degree	Class of Honours	Years attended		Institution	Year Conferred
		Start	Finish

Please provide an official copy of your academic transcript, including the grading system.

☐

I have attached a copy of my academic transcript, including the grading system

7. Previous Scholarships

Year(s)	Scholarship held	Institution	Amount	Paid for (e.g. fees, living/stipend)
			$
			$
			$

8a. Proposed Course of Study (MSc candidates)

I propose to study at University, in the School of

Potential Supervisor's name (if known)

Supervisors Position

Proposed MSc course work (if not already completed)

.....

.....

.....

9. CV

Please provide a copy of your CV outlining your previous work experience, any relevant research experience and your background in quantitative methods.

☐

I have attached a copy of my CV

10. Declaration

Please sign and date the declaration below. Your application will not be processed if it is not signed.

Declaration:

I declare that to the best of my knowledge all information provided on this Application Form is true and correct.

Signature

Date

Please return this form to: Science Officer, Fisheries New Zealand, PO Box 2526, Wellington; or science.officer@mpi.govt.nz. All applications must be received by 16th October 2020.

Fisheries New Zealand

Tini a Tangaroa

Fisheries New Zealand/NIWA Postgraduate Scholarships in Quantitative Fisheries Science for the 2021 academic year.

Application Form – Part II

To be submitted by 11th December 2020.

Masters

☐

1. Surname or Family Name

Given Names

2. Proposed Course of Study

I propose to study at University, in the School of

Potential Supervisor's name

Position

Co supervisor is located at: NIWA
Fisheries New Zealand

☐
☐

Co-supervisor's name

Position

Project Title

.....
.....

Please provide a project proposal developed in conjunction with University, NIWA and/or Fisheries New Zealand. The proposal should cover the contribution the research will make to fisheries science, specific aims/objectives, an outline of the research approach (including methodology) and an approximate timeline for the completion.

☐ I have attached a copy of my project proposal

☐ I have developed this proposal in conjunction with the University, NIWA and Fisheries New Zealand

3. Updated CV

Please provide a copy of your updated CV (if different from that provided in the Application Form - Part I)

☐ I have attached a copy of my updated CV

4. Career goals and aspirations

Please provide a one-page statement of career goals and the reason this scholarship programme will be beneficial to achieving them.

☐ I have attached a copy of my career goals

5. Referees Report Forms

Please provide two academic referees reports, which are to be sent directly to Science Officer, Fisheries New Zealand, PO Box 2526, Wellington; science.officer@mpi.govt.nz

Name	Email

6. Declaration

Please sign and date the declaration below. Your application will not be processed if it is not signed.

Declaration:

I declare that to the best of my knowledge all information provided on this Application Form is true and correct.

Signature

Date

Please return this form to: Science Officer, Fisheries New Zealand, PO Box 1020, Wellington; science.officer@mpi.govt.nz. All applications must be received by 11th November 2020