

FoodPlus Quarterly Progress Summary: July to September 2018

Summary of progress

- In the July to September quarter ANZCO commenced trials of a FoodPlus food product in a new market channel – convenience stores.
- ANZCO conducted a successful production trial of a new blood product, which, if commercialised will increase utilisation of blood and will also deliver a new product for Bovogen.
- In August ANZCO Healthcare had the largest monthly sales to date of biotissue products.

Key highlights and achievements

The highlight of the quarter was progress on a prototype technology for processing pet treat. If successful, this development will be the basis for rapid scaling of production.

Upcoming

In the third quarter of 2018, ANZCO will continue work on technology that, if successful, allow better integration of blood collection with processing at Bovogen.
