

The Southern Scallop Working Group (SSWG) members represent Iwi and a number of organisations and clubs. The members of the SSWG bring a variety of relevant experience and skills to the group.

Allen Frazer (Chair); Team Manager of the Southern Inshore Fisheries Management Team.

Hannah Charan-Dixon; Fisheries Analyst for the Southern Inshore Fisheries Management Team, Fisheries New Zealand.

Marine Pomarède; Senior Scientist, Stock Assessment Team at Fisheries New Zealand.

Fred te Miha (Ngāti Tama); Iwi Representative.

Des Boyce; Representing recreational fishing interests on behalf of the Marlborough Recreational Fishers Association.

Michael Arbuckle; Challenger Scallop Enhancement Company. Independent Fisheries Consultant.

James Williams; Fisheries Scientist at the National Institute of Water and Atmospheric Research (NIWA) acting as a science advisor and expert on the SSWG.

Peter van Kampen; Policy Analyst at Te Ohu Kaimoana with a background in Marine Science. Peter's role on the SSWG is to provide Iwi support.

Doug Saunders-Loder; representing the Challenger Scallop Enhancement Company. Resource Manager for Talley's Group Limited.

Andrew Caddie; representative and President of the Kenepuru and Central Sounds Residents Association.

Kim Drummond; Fisheries and Aquaculture Policy Manager at Te Ohu Kaimoana. Kim's role on the SSWG is to provide Iwi support.

Michael Connolly; representing the recreational fishing interests on behalf of the Pelorus Boating Club and Dawnbreakers Fishing Club.

Richardt Prosch (CEO Te Ātiawa o Te Waka-a-Māui); Appointed to the Southern Scallop Working Group by the Te Tau Ihu Fisheries Forum to represent the views of the eight Te Tau Ihu Iwi.

Chris West; Challenger Scallop Enhancement Company; commercial fisher and skipper.