New Zealand attended the 21st session of the CCFFV. Main outcomes of importance to NZ were:

The focus for New Zealand at this meeting was to present the draft Codex Standard for Kiwifruit to the committee for discussion and to then be recommended for adoption by the Codex Alimentarius Commission (CAC).

It was agreed by the Codex Fresh Fruit and Vegetables Committee (CCFFV) to recommend the draft Codex Standards for Kiwifruit, Garlic and Ware potatoes for adoption by the CAC and the draft Standard for Yams was recommended for advancement to the next step.

New Zealand is a large exporter of kiwifruit and ware potatoes and the advancements of these Standards was a successful outcome for New Zealand.
